

DIVINING A NEW CHAPTER OF DARKNESS

NFD RETURN THIS AUTUMN WITH THEIR FOURTH FULL LENGTH STUDIO ALBUM

Gothic-Rock/Metal bastions NFD (Noise For Destruction) are back this Witching season to unleash their fourth full length studio album, DIVINATION. The first in over a decade, a haunting and powerful celebration of their dark legacy.

Never afraid to throw a few rocks into the pond of what is expected from their genre it is a fusion of new and old styles with an overarching theme exploring the many paths of fate. Some travelled, some yet to come but all still to reveal their true nature and meaning.

Recorded across a two-year span at Holy Rock Studios in Deepest Darkest Derbyshire under the watchful eye of AMEN producer & guitarist Oliver Kenny, this "Gothic Monstrosity" distils the band's essence into monstrous riffs, operatic guitars, and deeply evocative atmospheres, lethal in their gothic grandeur. The album is Co-produced by Ol Kenny and Peter White.

Thirteen plus songs written by White across NFD's storied history, held waiting in a crypt, now to rise from the shadows having been meticulously brought to life by Chris Milden (Rhythm Guitar), Luca Mazzucconi (Drums), Lars Kappeler (Bass), and Rebecca Galfalvi (Violins). Band founder Peter White at the helm, delivering vocals, lead guitars and more as always.

The new album DIVINATION will be released through both CODE7 & Bandcamp in multiple formats including:

- DIGIPAK: Special edition Digipak with hard slipcase and stunning 32-page booklet.
- VINYL: Double heavyweight black vinyl gatefold album with insert.
- DIGITAL: Releasing on all major streaming platforms.

The album release will be encircled by multiple digital single and promo video releases with the first of these 'Resurrection Day' to be released in Early October. Hardcore fans will be able to access the album before it hits the shops via the Bandcamp App with bonus items included with their physical orders.
